There could not have been a soul less than 12,000 people in the streets at 12 o'clock-and remember these all belonged to the little punty of Lake, with the exception of a band of susic and a desen lavited persons. The grand recession that marched through the town and procession that marened through the town and out to the grove, a distance of two miles, was more than four miles long, and occupied nearly two hours in passing a given point. And after the main procession had reached the speaking ground, another delegation from an extreme part of the county arrived, which was half a mile long.

I will not attempt in this heaty sketch to give a detailed description of all the delegations, de-vices, embloms, inscriptions and pagasatiry of the occasion. The citizens of Wankegen contributed a large company of Wide-Awakes and another of Cadeta. Also 34 handsome young inscribed the name of the State each one repre-mented. The ladles were accompanied by an equal number of young gentlemen. A cha bore 34 young misses dreamed in white and other wise decorated. After these came a large company of Liucoln rangers from one of the townships; also more Wide-Awakes. Tann came the whip of State, a full rigged vessel, well aned with gallant tars. It was followed by arge number of industrial devices on wheels, ting the various trades, with freedom tions. Following these came miles of people on horseback, and wagons filled with enthusiastic, cheering Republicaus. There were triumphal able bearing flags, streamers, bushes, raily, mauls, wedges, uxes, farming utensils, banners with pithy centiments and wit y devices,—the whole interspersed with brass bands and fifes asd drums, and presenting a most formid-able and imposing appearance as it wound its interminable length along the streets. When the vast throng had marched into the peaking commenced. Mr. Lovejoy led off in a peach of an about, which carried every thing storm. Mr. Knox followed for an hour in

It seemed as if every public building, hote, grocery, store, shep, office and dwelling in the place was "illuminated" with flage and arreamers. I nev-er saw anything to excelit. The Republicans of Waukegan are of the live, Wide Awake sort. The report that the Republicans of Lake were spathetic, and were losing ground, are 'alsehoods out of whole cloth. Never was our party so much aroused. The campa'gn of 1856 was nothing to the one of this season. The feeling is deeper and more pervading now than then Lake County will exceed its Fremont majority, Lake County will expect its Fremont majority, which was 1,779. Dakana, Dakab Co., Sept. 4, 1860.

Ten days ago the Democracy of this county had a grand demonstration at Sycamore, to hear Jim Affents milk story, and the reporter of the Chicago. Times nut the number in attendance at the support of Mr. Douglas but the election of Bre kinridge or Jo. Lane to the Presidency. Chicago Time put the number in attendance at 5,000, the same veracious reporter also stating the length of the DeKall delegation, which consisted of 44 teams, at two miles! You remember I sold you that in every particular we should beat their demonstration six-fold. Well, we have about done the thing, taking their configures, for thiart thousand is a figure at which good judges estimate our crowd yesterday. I know appearances are described in these gatherings, and it is impossible to form a correct estimate of the number of a crowd where they do not all pass the same point; but there is no doubt about one thing, to wit, that we had enough peeple, and more than we could comfortably disposs of. Jo. Know was at the big Peoferments last week, and be say this was as nember I told you that in every particular w THE STATE PROPER.
It is exceedingly gratifying to all parties in Chicago that a gentleman of Hon. William B. Ogden's known lotegrity, ability and familierits with public affairs, has consented to serve his district and the whole State by accepting a place in the Senate. We entertain no doubt, ris masting last week, and he says this was as large as that; and Cassius M. Clay says it was the largest crossed he has yet addressed in the State. I was st. Springfield at the grand guithering there a few weeks since, and I am sure ours was one third if not one balf as large as that. I will not enter upon the details of the demonstration, as these awakenings of the people are getting to be a common thing. The delegaonstration, as these awatenings of the people sire getting to be sommon thing. The delegation which went down from Sycamore and the northern towns was deserving of especial actice. It was headed by the Sycamore Brass Band, followed by the Sycamore Brass Band, followed by the Sycamore Wide-Awakea, under communed of Capt. Eliwood, acting as an eacort for Cassius M. Clay, who had gone over to that village to pass the night; then came a pyramid, consisting of thirty three young lastes representing the States, on the lower steps and on the upper ones the Sycamore Wide-Awake Cadots, under Master Albert Sambors, a company which elicited many encomiums. Then tollowed the Sycamore Gibe Club, who had a wagen rigged out in appendid style by Mr. H. B. Jones, and which was, we think, a little the nestest arrangement yet gotten up in the State. It consisted of a sort of temple, in troot of which was a large ball which was kept constantly revolving, and was inscribed with the Editor that Republican Ball, the tile of one to Club's best songs. I his wagen here the Club's best songs. I have some hore the regular members of the Club, as follows: John S. Harrour, B. S. Dutton, Dr. D. Dustin, Charley Park and Harry Joslan, together with a chores of these or timps company of two deasn mendelous Republicans propose to visit our seligiblering towns occasionally and let their songs ascend there for Newsman and Enforcement of the product of the pro the Northwest, will make him a favorite with the people at large, and, if nominated, will secure his election by an unprecede ted ma-jority. Brought forward at this juncture, his nomination will satisfy everybody, and none to well as the few men who were electionering for the occupation of Mr. Judd's seat. In him they will recognize no political rival, because it is known that he indulges no political substition which will not be gratified by heariy service of his constituents in the place for which he is named. We would not projecte the claims of any Republican who has thought of the Esnate as the reward of party service; but we speak freely because we believe there is not one who will consent to have his name used in opposition to Mr. Ogden. But less this chance to harmonize the party in Osok founty and ascure a man of great ability in the Ligipaleture, should be lost by the inaction of riends and the opposition of the factions, we take fine occasion to exhort those who desire to have a Senator for service to the State rather than one who will use his place as a sepping stome to higher stetion, to see to it that Mr. Ogden's nomination is assured by early and prompt movements in his behalf. We have no reason to doubt it now; but let its unamination.

Three herself's fittle extra on this eccasion. From Somonuk township, twenty miles, there came over a hundred teams, and in like proportion from the other towns. If was utterly impossible to form them all in one procession, and this timing was not attempted.

Next I come to speak of the arrivale by railroad. The Sycamore railroad brought a fine crowd of ladies and others who could not be provided with teams to go in the procession. From the west, of the D ness flathread these came several carloads, and a large train also from Fox Rives, beging it. S. Charles, Eigin and Batavia We have a wakes and others.

briet," and the boys as, they will add a tiger for "Minnesota Baker." Mr. Baker was followed by Hoc. I. N. Arnold, the Republican nr mines for Congress, who made one of his best speeches.

The speech of Jo. Knox, at the second stand, was one with which our people were particularly delighted. It took them by storm. I think Jo. was never in better trim, and he seemed to aneak hecause he liked to. At nearly every aneak hecause he liked to. At nearly every Jo. was never in better tim, and as seemed to speak because he liked to. At nearly every period he was interrupted with rounds of applause. He did drive in the great from spikes, I tell you! and he would hit such one such a thundering whack to clinch it! The Squister-stee dow't like Jo. Kacz! Ergo, the Republicans of De Kalb say he must come here again. T. O. Moore, E. q., of Batavia, followed Knox at this stand, and made a good speech.
At the third stand, our old popular favorite, John Farnaworth, carried the crowd with him, and made such a noise—he and the crowd—as nearly to dissurb the other meetings. A very kern, able and witty lawyer of De Kalb, who bear to discuss the other meetings. A very keen, able and witty lawyer of De Kalb, who has more brains than all the rest of the Demo-cratic speakers in this section put logsthar, commenced asking John questions, which were fraskly answered, and the querist encouraged to ask others. These followed a collective of seven, shed thirty drums—and the gies club; the latter going round from stand to stand, and singing themselves hoarse.

Well, such is a rough sketch of this grand gathering. The Republicans of the village of Dekalb have respect goiden ingoors by their inberaitly and energy. They are a gallant ast, and are doing a glorious work. Thus town is the hotbed of Democracy in this county. The organ of the Squatterites here had distinctly announced, and the editor had youthed his word of honor-tor it, that Cassius M. Clay would never speak in Dekalb. This announcement did no further damage than to change a few dollars from Democratic into Republican pockets, our boys betting on the word of Clay as against that of any Democrat. This, by the way, is not the Kegre Equality organ—that is the Scaling. It is evaluation. To Chief Marshal night on the Elgin. METEOROLOGICAL. - Yesterday was sultry,

One word in excelsion. To Chief Marshal Randall, of DeKalb, and to his deputies, T. Welt, R. L., James, A. W. Sawer Jasper H. Watte, Brouwon H. For, Chias Tappen, Eackiel Noble, and other, and to the President of the day, S. Vanghd, great credit is due for their effective and arrounce laboral.

I haven't described half I saw. It was a high old time "generally, and—we sak you'd remember—the largest gathering of the mosses yet hald in Northern Islands. It is wasn't, ask any of the Speakers to tell you where there was a larger one.

I came near forgetting to speak of the Wide Awake procession in the evening, and the speakers dot admirably, Clay being pecularly successful; and the streets were it up as by a conflagration. But quantum of the streets were it up as by a conflagration.

13th of March, 1850.

"I have already had occasion to remark, that at the time of the adoption of the Constitution, there were twelve (slave States) and six of them have since shoulded slaver. This fact shows that i. e. sume of firstdom has atendity and firmly advanced, while alwery has recorded in the same ratio. We all hook forward with condidence to the time when Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Kentucky and Missouri, and probably north Carolina and Temessee, evil adopt one gradual system of emassionation, under the operation of which those States must, in process of time, become free "—Cong. Globe appendix, ecc. 23, part 1, page 311.

These sentiments, according to the Georgia These sentiments, according to the Georgian, are the very essence of the "irrepressi ble conflict," and we cannot say that it is far tering the same truths in the National Capitol or the State House of Illinois. It is impossible that the tumult among the maddened fac-tions of the Democracy in the South should not penetrate through the crust of ignorance which surrounds the slave population and lead to results compared with which the Tennessee insurrection four years ago was the merest child's play will seem to be some the of his city exceeds that of ours, and to de swo cities whose commerce is thus compared.

Now Orleans was settled in the year 1717.

It is therefore 143 years old. As a commercial centre it possesses greater natural advantages than any other city upon the continent. tages than any other city upon the continent. It enjoys all the advantages of a sea-port, on the one hand, and commands all the navigable waters of the greatest River System in the world. The Mississippi and its tributaries afford not less than 15,000 miles of navigable ford not less than 15,000 miles of navigable waters, communicating with a vast extent of country illimitable in its recourses, unparalisted in its fertility, and embracing nearly every variety of climats. The population of New Orieans, after a growth of 143 years, is estimated at 175,000. In 1830 it had a population of 45,510; and in 1840, of 102,193. The countrication extension to the country of the countrication of 45,510; and in 1840, of 102,193. lation of 45,3 lb; and in 18an, or 104, its.

The countricabordering upon the navigable waters of the Maslashph and its tribularies have been in process of setflement, some of them for more than a century, others for a less pariod—but all of them, as far north as Kansas and Minnesota, for at less teirty years. Dusing nearly she whole of this period New Orleans and Minnesots, for at least sixty years. Dusing nearly sha whole of this pariod. New Orleans has been the sole gateway for the commerce of this wast region of country. No products could seek the markets of the world without paying her tribute, ner could the productions of other countries and their way into the far inserior, unless they had first passed the ordeal of her countom-house and warshouses.

half of New Orleans, and all the disadvanta ges under which our city labored, the reader all kinds received at Chicago from the interior, for the year 1859, was $91,636,090; and the New Orleans Price Current esti-mates the value of products received in that city from the interior during the same yes, at $185,000,000. In other words, New Orleans—a city 143 years old, with the ad-vantage of a foreign commerce, with 15,000 miles of manigable water courses to bring to her wharves the vast and varied products of the great valley of the Mississippi, and in one of the best seasons she has ever enjoyed—finds her commerce to be just double that of Chi-cigo—a city only thirty years old, with no natural channels for conducting commerce with the interior, and deriving almost the whole of its business from a region of country stisfied with the result of the comparison, Chicago surely has no cause to feel bal over t—if the advocates of Slavery believe that but confirmation of the the ry on which free government and free labor are based. But if the Delta instituted the comparison for the purpose of settling the latter question, it should have been made with New York, which is nearer the age of New to settle the relative commercial growth and prosperity of the two cities, it should have compared the New Orleans of 1747 with the Chicago of 1860; or the New Orleans of 1860 with what Chicago will be 113 years hence But, as we said before, we are entirely content Delta has made it.

The infamous falsehood thus disposed of, is of a piece with the entire system of tactics adopted by the Donglasites. Their dogma of secure the votes of Northern freemen, is of itself a lie and a cheat; all the arguments by which they attempt to sustain it are founded in deception and falsehood; and their whole opposition to Republicanism is made up of representation and downright lying, of which latter the above is a fair example. It would seem that the leaders of that faction of mpt for the intell gence of the people, or that "a lie well sturk to is as good as the truth," to the test of actual experiment. The Western drovers are more or less to this week because of the new freight ingements that went into effect last Satural the Size. rangements that went into effect last Sature on all the great railroad routes from the W to the Atlantic. They complain bitterly the advance, but take special exceptions to plan whosh requires them to pay by weight stend of so much per var, as hersiofore. The war arrangement falls heavily upon all ships west of Cincionati, and the Kentucky droup particularly are discouraged by its operation of the control of be driven out of the market altogether. One effect of the new arrangement will be to leasen the supply as soon as all the contract eatile are brought down; and it is also estimated that the supply of hogs will be one-third leas.

Useners will pack more extensively at all the great packing points in the West, and seek water routes for their ebipments. Another, effect is to favor the small shippers whe ship at points where there are no weigning depots. They thus accape paying by weight until their cattle have been on the ears long enough to shrink forty or fifty be per head, while those who ship at Clincinant, or at any of the other weighing depots, cannot receive the benefit of the shrinkage. In other words, the Kentuckian who ships a drove averaging 1,545 lbs per head at home, and pays accordingly, indee on their strival hape that they average only 1,400 lbs.

Thus he not only loses 145 lbs, but is compelled to pay freight on the loss. He ships a car load at Boffalo. They weigh 29,000 lbs. By the time they arrays here they have shrunk to 20,500 lbs. He loses 1,500 lbs, and has to pay reight on that loss. Thus the arrangement operates with great severity upon the drovers from the far West, while it may be of some benefit to

[From the Opinion: Nationals]

We receive from Bome numerous letters, which all agree in contradicting the news circulated by several journais that all the political prisoners belonging to the Romageas have been released: The fact is, that they all, without a single exception, remain in irona. Some few prisoners (the Opinions gives their names) were set at liberty on June 28, but none of them ware from the Romagons. Of these very few, Imost all had but a very lew weets or days to remain in prison before the term of their sentence would expire, and the imjority returned to their families afflicted with incurable disasse contrasted during their confinement. "What matters ?" said the prest, "we have done tur best to save their souls!" A favorite device of the Roman Government when it wishes to ga'n credit for elemency is to remit an illusory portion of a heavy sentence, particularly in cases where the recipient of the favor has already suffered so much that he is not likely to live to enjoy it. For example, four years have been struck off the sentence of hard labor to which young Mexaporeti of Tock was condemned. But he is now nothing but a living skeleton stretched upon abed of weffering. He was once a rich merchant, Since his imprisonent he has beenet the death of his father (who died of grief), of his two sons, and the utter

There have been plenty of signs for a long time past that Austria is preparing not only to defend what she holids in Italy, but to regain what she has lost. We move that such intentions and house actually avails by means of fact.

that she has lost; We snow that such inten-ons and hopes actually exist, by means of let-rate forwarded to us by friendly States; we see a indication of it in the sitle of "Lombardo-enetian Kingdom" heading the Austrian flicial documents, which immediately after the vilarances business merelly had the bearing of Venetia;" we know it from the confessions! emisseries who have been arrested from me to time, and from documents that have send their way to us from other parts of Italy.

time to time, and from documents that have found their way to us from other parts of Italy. The Court of Rome is in a strict league with Austria for this object and end, we have obtained some most valuable information since the celebrated interview at Toplits. We know that a condition against France was there brouched, and that it was resolved to make an approach towards England, "and make use of her without trusting her —these are the vary words that by an indiscretion were babbled in a letter written in Bavaria. To this combination the Pope would lend all the weapons in his spiritual armory: Prussia, Austria, and some of the minor powers would supply the scidiers; England money and shios—supposing Russia keeps obstinately aloof from the movement. frat move in Italy would be made by preaching communism; in other words, by appeals to the most brutal passions. Impossible schemes and vain hopes, you will save. It is not very likely that England will give money to help Amstria and the Pope; it is not very likely that Italy will swallow the bait of communism. But the schemes and hopes exist for all that, and from such schemes and hopes we shall soon see distribunces enrue, over which we trust, nevertheless, fo obtain the most signal triumph.

ATURDAY, BEFTEMBER & 1869. LIVAL AND DEPARTURE

The fate of Italy for the present, and no one as presume to say for how long, depends upon to answer which will be given to a very simple pestion.—What are the ultimate intentions of complicated, owing mainly to the tortuous na-ture of the policy she had pursued. With what precise motives the French Emperor took up arms to liberate Italy, it is not very easy to di-vise. Whatever those motives were, we do not precise motives the Freech Emperor took up arms to inherate Italy, it is not very easy to divise. Whatever those motives were, we do not think that they included among them the first and most obvious result of this policy—a change in the balance of power in Europe. By the state of things which existed before the late war, Italy was indeed reduced to a geographical expression. Austria had enough power to prevent the Princes of Italy fram exercising influence on the affairs of Europe, and those princes retained enough independence to prevent them from siding materially to the strangth of the Austrian empire. But united under a single head they form a state of considerable influence, and enough independence to the strangth of the Austrian empire. But united under a single head they form a state of considerable influence, and enough they considerable influence, and enough they considered, and about Naples be added to his dominions, will have a feast ewenty millions. Frace-institution has now twelve millions. Frace-institution has one work. The Emperor wishes to humble the Pope, but a respect for the opmon and the religion of his people does not desire to which her can't be prevented the reality of vacilities.

in nothing to rely use the nothing to rely use the nothing to rely use thingself to a position which places in his ands, as we can easily abow, the future destinates of Italy. We know not what are Garbiald's intentions, but, if we are to judge of them from what reaches us, we regard them with more apprehension than hope. He is said to view the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Apples, and the united to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the conquest of Apples, and the united to the conquest of the country, at the special to the special to the country, at the special to the speci view the conquest of Sicily only as as tepping stone to the sonquest of Naples, and the united force of Sicily and Naples as a means of working out the deliverance of the patrimenty of St. Peter, if not of Rome itself, from the sovereignty of the Pope. Thus lord of Southern Italy, he purposes, it is said, to attack the Asstranempra, probably by creating serverolutionary movement in Huggary, and never to she at he has sword till Italy, including the province of Venetic shall acknowledge the single scentre of 35 Lake Street, Chicago.

he purposes, it is said, to attack the Austrian cam ora, probably by creating servolutionary movement in Hungary, and never to ahe attach in sowed till I sly, meluding the province of Venetis abail acknowledge the single sceptre of Venetis abail acknowledge the slightest objection that Garbaid abouted advance as far as he can go, encountering merely Italian opposition. If he shall everthrow the kingdom of Naples, he will deliver one of the finest portions of the earth from a crust and hypocritical tyramp. If he shall wreat the patrimony of St. Peter from the Pope, he will free a people possessed of many noble qualities, from the yoke of a degrading theocracy. If the people that delivered choose to aggregate themselves to the subjects of Victor Emanuel, we can have nothing to say against it, except that we fear they are creating a power out of such discordant elements, that it must rely for unity on the overpowering strength of its executive, and forego all hopes of a representative government, according to our sense of the word. These things Garbaid may do, in all probability, without drawing down upon himself the armed interference of France or of Austra. Let him draw the line here, and he may reasonably hope to leave to posterity a name that will rank with Epamimondas or Aratus in ancient, with Tell or Washington in modern story. Let him go beyond this, and he will be brought at once into collision with the reasources, the discipline, and the valor of an army, before which his raw and thumultany forces will vanish like an exhibition. The stake is not equal. If Austria as to set Venetia on one side, and Garibaidi and all the reas of Italy on the other, access would add sometring to his surels, but failure would be abole to storm those formidable fortrasses before which the E E. & T. aging 10 ordiff for the Mines, it 89 Lake at, The advantage to Prance of having a telegraphic cable laid down between her own counts and those of the United States, is point VERY IMPORTANT INFORMand must promote the prosperity of the French markets, the article proceeds in the following terms:

The Company engages, for the guarantee of a minimum revenus of 1,000,000 france during fifty years, to lay down within three years, a sub marine feligraph between the coasts of France and the United States, with a station at Newfoundland, and another, if thought desirable, in one of the Address. Other lines may be added, if deemed necessary, and on the same onditions. The amount of the homercial movement between France and the United States being constantly increasing, it is believed that the guaranteed minimum of marrest is by no means excessive, and that the Company may reasonably expect to realize much higher profits. Every precastion, however, has been taken to prevent loss to the Treasury. The guarantee of the Government only begins from the day on which the telegraph shall be in regular operation and placed at the disposal of the public. Till then, the undertaking is altogether a private accessary for laying down the cable and organizing the service; it does this at its own rist and perf, and is alone responsible in case of failure. In this eminently French undertaking, the Hindster of the Interior has been marched to protect the interests of French industry. A special clause has been inserted in the convention, providing that the _able shall be manufactured in France. Nothing now remains but to execute the project, and that operation will not be long dialyed. The convention only allowathe Company one year to begin the works, by which time one-fourth of the cable must be ready. han any other in use.
